

Dear Friends,

I invite you to attend a special meeting of the Los Angeles City Council's Budget and Finance Committee and hope you provide us with input and ideas on what our city's spending priorities should be in the upcoming year.

As you are well aware, our nation is facing unprecedented and harsh economic times. The City of Los Angeles is not exempt, facing a $400 million budget shortfall. Balancing the city's budget will require us to consider unpleasant choices such as employee furloughs, layoffs, and reductions in city services. It is important that city leaders receive community feedback when making these tough decisions. I encourage you to attend this meeting, learn more about our current fiscal situation, and let your voices be heard.

Here are the details:

Who: Los Angeles City Council Budget and Finance Committee

When: 7:00 p.m.
Monday, February 9, 2009

Where: Iranian Muslim Association of North America (IMAN)
3376 Motor Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90034

I hope you can join me and my colleagues and offer your advice as we anticipate another tight budget next year.

Regards,
